Dated this the 1st day of December, 2007

O R D E R

The prayer in this Crl.M.C. is to quash a prosecution under Section 498A I.P.C. on the ground that the parties have settled their disputes. No material whatsoever has been produced before this Court to satisfy the court that the matter has been settled between the parties. The defacto complainant/second respondent has not entered appearance. Though sufficient time has been granted, appearance of the second respondent has not been ensured and no joint application is filed to confirm that there has been a composition.

2. This Crl.M.C. is, in these circumstances, dismissed.

(R. BASANT)
Judge
